A motion to reconsider the motion fixing the hours of meeting and adjournment was carried.

A motion to meet at 9 A. M. and adjourn at 1 P. M. was carried.

Preaching Services.—The following request of the Birmingham and Bessemer Methodist Preachers Meeting was received, and on motion it was granted:

The following action, proposed by Robert Echols, J. W. Norton, and J. D. Simpson, was taken by the Birmingham and Bessemer Methodist Preachers, and this action was concurred in by the Evangelistic Committee:

In view of the unusual conditions through which the world is passing, and especially in view of the church-wide revival being planned by our church leaders, we feel that we, as ministers, need a special induement for service in this time of crisis:

We, therefore, respectfully and urgently request the North Alabama Conference, during its next session, to set apart the time from 12:30 to 1:00 o'clock each day for preaching services; and that Dr. George R. Stuart be invited to preach on some vital gospel theme.

(Signed) E. M. Glenn, Secretary.

September 15th, 1919.

Statistical Reports.—E. M. Glenn offered the following resolution which was adopted:

Resolved, that one blank space of table 3 of the Statistical Reports record collections made on the Centenary account.

Second, that in case of moneys for any cause, other than these and those specified in the printed form, all such moneys shall be accounted for by being gathered into one general item, as "Objects not Elsewhere Reported"; and pastors, itemizing such other moneys, shall themselves enter the totals as herein directed.

Educational Rally.—F. W. Brandon moved that Thursday night be set apart for the Educational Rally, and the motion carried.

Bar of Conference.—On motion the lower floor of the church auditorium was fixed as the bar of the conference.

Centenary.—Dr. W. B. Beauchamp was introduced and made a statement concerning the manner of reporting Centenary moneys collected.

Communications.—A communication from the Emory University was referred to the Board of Education without reading.

Owenton Church.—The following communciation was read and adopted:

To the Bishop and Members of the North Alabama Conference, in session at Birmingham, Alabama, November 5th, 1919:

Dear Fathers and Brethren:

We desire to call your attention to a matter we deem of great importance. Birmingham-Southern College, now the property of the two Alabama Conferences, located at Owenton, Birmingham, has the largest enrollment in the history of the institution; the number of the boarding pupils is greater than the capacity of the boarding department. These pupils are from all over the state, and are dependent on the Methodist Church at Owenton for Church Services and all things pertaining to Church life. The membership of the Church is not large, and is limited in financial ability. The present house of worship is wholly inadequate to meet the demands. It is a regulation, governing the boarding pupils that they attend Sunday School and morning preaching at Owenton Church. This is as it should be, for otherwise there can be no spiritual oversight given the students. The building is small and the Sunday School crowded to its utmost capacity with no class rooms or other conveniences for modern Sunday School work. The building will seat but few more than the College boys at the preaching services, and it is impossible to carry on the Church work of the community and the College in it.

We have given the facts thus fully, to show the need of a new modern house of worship. The community is not financially able to build such a house as is needed, but is willing to do all it can. The whole of Alabama Methodism is interested in the spiritual welfare of the students in the College. We, therefore, most earnestly recommend and request that an assessment of $5,000.00 annually be levied on the Conference until the sum of $25,000.00 be raised for the building of a Church at Owenton to cost not less than $60,000.00, and to be known as the "James H. McCoy Memorial Church."

We recommend that the Board of Church Extension request the Commission on Finance to incorporate this amount in the assessment placed on the Conference from year to year till the $25,000.00 be raised.

We also recommend that the Conference be authorized to pay the amount collected to the Treasurer of the Building Committee.

Adopted by the Birmingham-Bessemer Preachers Meeting, October 27th, 1919.

(Signed) P. B. Wells.
E. M. Glenn.

Announcements.—Sundry calls and announcements were made.

Order of the Day.—The hour for the order of the day having arrived, Dr. G. R. Stuart read Acts 2:1-4, and made his second evangelistic talk on the "Work of the Holy Spirit."

Resolution.—The following resolution was offered by J. C. Persinger: Resolved, That the Brotherhood request the Conference to direct its Secretary to indicate on the Conference Roll, members of the Brotherhood by placing the letter "b" after the names of each Brotherhood member.

J. C. Persinger, President.

On motion it was adopted.

Superannuate Homes Report.—J. W. Norton made his report as Agent of the Superannuate Home Movement, and it was adopted. (See Supplement.)

Report of Treasurer of Superannuate Homes was read and adopted. (See Sup.) The Trustees of Superannuate Homes made their report and it was adopted. (See Supplement.)

Reconsideration.—Motion to reconsider the action of the Conference whereby it determined to meet in afternoon session was carried and Bishop Atkins announced that there would be no afternoon session.

Memorial Session.—A motion that when we adjourn, we adjourn to meet in Memorial Session Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock prevailed.

Extension of Time.—A motion to continue the morning session for a half-hour at the close of the morning Evangelistic service, was carried.

Question 4: Who Are Admitted into Full Connection?—E. W. Corley, L. F. Faust and J. M. Holland were called to the altar and after answering satisfactorily the disciplinary questions and an address by the Bishop, they were admitted by unanimous vote into full connection.

Dr. Jno. McNeill.—The hour for special service having arrived, Dr. Jno. McNeill, Pastor of the South Highlands Presbyterian Church, gave an interesting and helpful presentation of the lesson of the "Lame Man at the Beautiful Gate."

Board on Temperance.—The report of the Board on Temperance and Social Service was read and adopted. (See Supplement.)

Sabbath Observance.—The Report of the Committee on Sabbath Observance was read and adopted. (See Supplement.)

Board on Missions.—Report No. 3 of Board on Missions was read and adopted. (See Supplement.)

District Conference Records.—The report of the Committee on District Conference Records was read and adopted. (See Supplement.)

Resolution.—The following resolution was adopted:

Resolved, that funds collected during the conference session, to meet emergencies by way of assisting needy brethren, be noted by the Conference Board of Finance, both as to the amount collected and the application.

E. M. Glenn.

Article XXIII.—The Bishop announced that the General Conference had requested the several Annual Conferences to vote on the question "Shall the Twenty-Third Article of Religion in the Disciplines of all our Churches in Foreign lands read:

"XXIII.—Of the Duty of Christians to the Civil Authority.

"It is the duty of all Christians, and especially of all Christian ministers, to observe and obey the laws and commands of the governing or supreme authority of the country of which they are citizens or subjects, or in which they reside, and to use all laudable means to encourage and enjoin obedience to the powers that be?"

On motion favoring the proposed Article, one hundred and seventy-eight (178) stood until counted, and there were none to oppose.

Report of Board of Church Extension.—The report of the Board of Church Extension was read and adopted. (See Supplement.)

Evangelism.—The report of the Committee on Evangelism was read and adopted. (See Supplement.)

Adjournment. After announcements the Conference sang the Doxology, Dr. L. C. Branscomb pronounced the benediction and the Conference stood adjourned.

FIFTH DAY—Memorial Session

Birmingham, Ala., November 9th, 1919.

Opening.—The Conference met in Memorial Session at 3 P. M., Rev. E. M. Glenn presiding by appointment.

Devotions.—Dr. Glenn conducted the devotional exercises.

The President called:

Question 11: What Preachers Have Died During the Year?—The Secretary called the names of Bishop James H. McCoy (Honorary Member of the Conference), Leander F. Whitten, John C. Savage, Charles B. Riddick, John L. Ferguson, Sr., and Carrol C. O'Neal.

Memoirs.—Dr. L. C. Branscomb read the Memoir of Bishop James H. McCoy. Dr. S. L. Dobbs read the Memoir of L. F. Whitten. L. G. Alverson read the Memoir of John C. Savage. F. W. Brandon read the Memoir of C. B. Riddick. J. S. Glasgow read the Memoir of John L. Ferguson, Sr. E. M. Glenn read the Memoir of Carrol C. O'Neal.

By permission, a Memoir of Judge Thomas Bradford, a prominent lay member of former Conferences, was read by C. W. Seale.

Tributes.—The following brethren spoke words of appreciation of those whose memoirs were read: Joel F. Sturdivant, W. E. Faust, S. L. Dobbs, G. W. Read, and T. K. Tierce.

The report was then adopted. (See Supplement.)

Adjournment.—After announcements the benediction was pronounced by T. K. Tierce.

FIFTH DAY—Evening Session

Birmingham, Ala., November 9th, 1919.

Opening.—The Conference convened in evening session, Bishop Atkins presiding.

After the sermon preached by Dr. H. C. Howard, those elected to elders' orders were presented at the altar and after answering the disciplinary questions were ordained, and Jno. Taylor and R. F. McDonald assumed the ordination vows being already Elders.

Minutes.—The minutes of yesterday's session and of the Memorial session were read and approved.

Statistics.—The Statistical Secretary made report answering questions 20-33. (See Minutes of Conference.)

Dr. Lovelady moved reconsideration of Report No. 1 of the Board of Missions and it was reconsidered. Dr. Lovelady moved to strike out that part of the report recommending W. J. McCarty as Missionary Evangelist, and it was so ordered. The report was then adopted.

Board on Lay Activities.—The Board on Lay Activities made its report and it was adopted. (See Supplement.)

Committee On Evangelism.—The Board on Evangelism made report No. 2. Dr. G. R. Stuart spoke to the report. The report was adopted. (See Supplement.)

Question 14: What Traveling Preachers and What Local Preachers Have Been Ordained Deacons?—L. F. Faust, and J. M. Holland, traveling preachers, and Harvey W. Brown a local preacher, were, this morning, after a sermon preached by Bishop James Atkins, ordained deacons.

Question 16: What Traveling Preachers and What Local Preachers Have Been Ordained Elders?—Jesse Angus Clark, James Fletcher Dunn, Wm. Thomas Hamby, Benj. Franklin Hammond, Jesse Daniel Kaylor, Wm. Lumpkin Morris, Ren. Glenn Pugh, Louis Sair Wessinger, traveling preachers, were this evening, by Bishop Jas. Atkins, ordained Elders.

Jno. Taylor and R. F. McDonald, Elders coming to us from other churches, assumed the ordination vows.

Ordination of Elders.—Certificate of ordination signed by Bishop James H. McCoy, declared that on Dec. 10th, 1918, he ordained as elders Carl C. Gregory and Wm. Graham Echols.

A similar certificate signed by Bishop W. F. McMurray, stated that on Aug. 4, 1918, he ordained Bac'man Gladstone Hodge, a local preacher of the Birmingham District, North Alabama Conference, to the office of Deacon and Elder. (See Supplement.)

Conference Postmaster.—A collection for our Conference Postmaster for services rendered, was taken, amounting to $71.77.

Patterson.—L. D. Patterson, a brother beloved and a returned Missionary from China, who went out from this Conference some years ago, spoke to the Conference.

Resolution of Thanks.—The Committee on Resolutions offered the following which was by rising vote unanimously adopted:

1. We the members of the North Alabama Conference hereby record our sincere and high appreciation of the generous entertainment of the Conference by its friends and the Methodists of Birmingham. We cannot express adequately our thanks for these repeated courtesies on the part of the good people of Birmingham.

2. The Conference also records its thanks to Dr. R. F. Lovelady, Chairman of the Committee on Entertainment, who has labored untiringly and ceaselessly for the comfort of the brethren. The service he rendered us was valuable indeed, and every member of the Conference is indebted to him for personal attention.

3. We also thank the pastor of this, the First Methodist Church and its members for the provision made for the further comfort and success of this Conference.

E. M. Glenn, Chairman Resolution Com.
Geo. W. Read.
Claude Orear.

Minutes.—The minutes of this evening's session were read and approved.

SUPERANNUATE HOMES

To the Bishop and Members of the North Alabama Conference.

Dear Brethren:

The Lord has graciously blessed us in our efforts to provide homes for the superannuated preachers and widows and orphans of deceased preachers during the year. We are glad to note that this great cause is constantly growing in favor with the good men and women of our church.

Soon after our last Conference the Executive Committee bought a good Superannuate Home at Woodlawn, in the Birmingham District. The Home is well located. It is occupied by Brother J. T. Morris and his good wife, who served faithfully in the Itinerancy over forty years. It is but just to say that the efficient secretary of our Conference, Rev. W. E. Morris, personally donated $750.00 when this Home was purchased. The Home will be known as the Letsinger and Morris Home.

We have received the deed for the Home at Gurley, in the Huntsville District, donated by Rev. J. W. Syler. We thank Brother Syler for this generous donation.

A very generous contribution by Dr. S. J. Gay, of Lineville in the Roanoke District, in connection with some other contributions from some good people of that community, enabled your Executive Committee to secure a good Home at Lineville. The Board of Trustees rendered some assistance in the purchase of that Home.

It was the splendid contributions upon the part of Dr. Gay that made that Home a possibility. The Home is occupied by Brother W. T. Daniel and wife, who served many years faithfully in the Itinerancy, and superannuated at the last session of our Conference. The Home will be known as the Dr. S. J. Gay and Wife Superannuate Home.

We are also happy to announce that the Executive Committee has recently purchased a splendid Home at Avondale, Birmingham District, to be known as the Dr. L. F. Whitten Memorial Home. That Home is in honor of our good Brother Whitten (deceased) who had just entered upon his fiftieth year in the Itinerancy when our Heavenly Father called him from the pastorate of St. John's Church, Birmingham, to that "City which hath foundations whose builder and maker is God." Your agent secured several hundred dollars from special friends for this Home, which was supplemented by the Board of Trustees from the Treasury. We feel indebted to Dr. George R. Stuart for special assistance, and our great First Church, Birmingham, and many other good friends who so kindly made contributions for the Home.

We are glad to note also that plans have been made by some of the good women to neatly furnish the Home. The Whitten Memorial will be occupied by Sister Whitten, wife of the deceased, and her youngest daughter, soon after Conference.

Mr. H. H. Roberson, Patton, Alabama, has pledged a Home to be located at Arkadelphia, Haleyville District, the deed to be made at once. We thank Brother Roberson for this generous donation.

The balance due for the Letsinger farm has been collected and re-invested by the Board of Trustees in other property for Superannuate Homes.

The Executive Committee has arranged for Mrs. J. F. Rudisill to occupy the Nicholson Home, at Owenton, Birmingham District. The Executive Committee has also arranged for Rev. E. D. Emerson to occupy the Dr. F. I. Tarrant and Wife Home at North Birmingham, in place of Rev. J. W. Spencer, who did not move to the Home; and the Committee has also arranged for Rev. J. T. Black to occupy the Home at Pell City. These two Brethren will superannuate at this Conference.

The following claimants have reported repairs made by them on their Homes, unassisted by the Board of Trustees:

Rev. A. J. Chappell, Pettyjohn Home at Powderly	$ 50.00
Rev. W. R. Eddins, The Hillman Home at Ensley	150.00
Mrs. J. F. Rudisill & Son, Nicholson Home	50.00
Rev. C. D. Brooks, Lydia Pettyjohn Home, Powderly	25.00
Rev. W. F. Barnes, Chas. Schuessler Home, LaFayette	150.00
Rev. J. J. Crow, Bessemer Home	85.00
Mrs. J. D. Ellis, Rev. J. D. Ellis Home, Avondale	110.00
Mrs. R. A. Timmons, Sunshine Home, Gadsden	25.00
Rev. McD. Howell, The John E. Morriss Memorial, Springville	15.00
Mrs. H. P. Berry, The Home at Albertville	10.00
Rev. T. A. Kerr, The Dr. Tatum and Wife Home, Center, (about)	40.00
Mrs. J. W. Bradford, Roiley Home, Vincent (about)	20.00

Mrs. G. W. Hamilton has made some repairs on the J. E. Walker Memorial Home at Alexander City. Other claimants have repaired and beautified their homes. It will be seen by the above that several hundreds of dollars have been spent by our claimants on their respective Homes.

The Board of Trustees has put a splendid roof on our Home at Roanoke and also made substantial repairs on our Sunday School Home at Gadsden. The Board is making some repairs on the Springfield and Littleton Home at Guin.

Mr. R. S. Munger, who has assumed the permanent up-keep of the R. S. Munger and Wife Home, at Owenton, Birmingham, has recently expended about $450.00 on the Home.

We have 83 Conference claimants on our roll, and this great movement at different times has provided for forty-five families.

The Home at Chepultepec has been sold by the Board of Trustees, and the proceeds will be re-invested in Superannuate Homes.

We have 36 Homes. They are kept insured, and premiums paid to date.

Our Cash Receipts Aggregate.....$11,207.07

The Approximate Value of Homes is..... 90,000.00

The Approximate Value of Homes Pledged is..... 25,000.00

We hold note for the Malinda Rowe and Martha Rowe Watkins

Superannuate Home Endowment Fund, which is..... 1,000.00

It is in good hands at 8% interest, which is collected annually.

We are glad to announce that Mr. N. M. Rowe has added $500.00 to that fund in a Fourth Liberty Loan Government Bond during this session of the conference.

Rev. C. C. O'Neal, one of our best men, who occupied the Home at Roanoke, has been called to his reward, and his widow and two daughters remain in the Home.

Rev. C. B. Riddick has also been called to Heaven during the year. Sisters I. Q. Melton, E. Nicholson and Sister G. W. Alley have been removed from earth to their home in Glory. These good brethren and sisters died in full triumph of the Christian faith, and will meet us at the Gates of Pearl.

Allow me to say that words are inadequate to express my high appreciation for the splendid cooperation, counsel and assistance upon the part of your efficient Executive Committee, composed of Rev. Robert Echols, President; J. D. Moore, Treasurer; Rev. J. D. Simpson, Dr. F. I. Tarrant, and E. J. Garrison; also your strong Board of Trustees, composed of all the Presiding Elders of the Conference, and one layman from each District, for their splendid assistance in the prosecution of this great movement of our Conference.

We feel grateful to all who have rendered in any way assistance to your Agent in our work.

Allow me to ask special interest in your prayers that the Lord may continue to direct by his Holy Spirit, in all our plans, to provide for all of our Conference Claimants.

Respectfully submitted,
J. W. NORTON, Agent.

Birmingham, Ala., November 4, 1919.

REPORT OF BOARD OF TRUSTEES FOR SUPERANNUATE HOMES

The Board met in the First Methodist Church, November 4, 1919. There was an excellent attendance of the Board. Rev. J. W. Norton, Agent, read his report. The Board is pleased with the fine work of the year, appreciates the faithful services and successful accomplishments of the Agent. The Treasurer's report was also before the Board; Brother J. D. Moore, has, in this report, made an excellent showing. The expenditures of the Agent and Treasurer, during the year, are approved. We recommend that D. Isbell, Albertville District, L. G. Pettyjohn, Bessemer District, and J. H. Walston, Florence District, whose terms expire at this time, be elected as trustees to succeed themselves. We recommend the appointment of J. W. Norton as Agent for Superannuate Homes for another year.

Respectfully submitted,
ROBT. ECHOLS, President.
I. F. HAWKINS, Secretary.

REPORT OF TREASURER OF LEGAL BOARD

To the Trustees for Conference Claimants of the North Alabama Conference:

Dear Brethren:

Herewith I submit my annual report as Treasurer for the Legal Board, the assets of which consist of:

Pratt Consolidated 5% Bonds.....	$6,000.00
Moore-Handley Hardware Co. 7% Preferred Stock.....	1,700.00
Making Total.....	$7,700.00

On these securities the interest is paid regularly without effort on my part and makes the work as treasurer of this fund quite simple.

Herewith I hand you check for the income, payable to the Joint Board of Finance, for $400.00.

Respectfully submitted,
J. D. MOORE, Treasurer.

Birmingham, Ala., November 4th, 1919.

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS OF THE ALABAMA METHODIST ORPHANAGE

Selma, Ala., Oct. 8th, 1919.

Your Board has met twice during the fiscal year, the last meeting on the 8th of October.

Children in Orphanage:

Number in Last Report.....	73
Admitted During the Year.....	55
	128
Discharged During the year.....	30
	98
Number This Date.....	98
From Alabama Conference.....	50
From North Alabama Conference.....	48
	98

This statement shows there are 25 more Children than last report.

The health of the children is excellent, no death occurring during the year.

The finances in good shape though there is less balance in current cash account than shown in last annual statement.

We feel that Rev. J. C. Craig has been under a greater strain this year due to the difficulty of securing servants and assistants. He deserves the sympathy and support of our people.

We authorized a Committee to build a Laundry, this has become a vital necessity, as washing by ordinary means is unreliable, difficult and expensive. We will need several thousand dollars more than we have in this fund, to build without incurring indebtedness.

The presiding Bishop is requested to re-appoint Rev. J. C. Craig, Superintendent, the Board unanimously re-electing him.

The term of C. W. Seale as Director expires this year and we request that he be appointed to succeed himself for a period of five years.

The Directors from the North Alabama Conference are J. H. Wilson, 1920; L. C. Branscomb, 1921; S. L. Dobbs, 1922; M. P. Phillips, 1923; C. W. Seale, 1924.

The Board organized by electing J. H. Wilson, President; M. H. Holt, Vice-President; J. M. Dannelly, Secretary; B. F. Cooper, Treasurer.

J. M. DANNELLY.

CONFERENCE COMMISSION ON FINANCE—REPORT No. 2

Conference Entertainment

We recommend that in the entertainment of the next session of the Conference that any Church desiring to give such entertainment shall be asked to provide only lodging and breakfast and that an assessment of $5,000.00 be placed on the Conference for lunch and supper of the delegates, the money thus collected to be used for the above purpose upon such agreement as may be entered into between the Church offering entertainment and the Conference Commission on Finance.

S. L. DOBBS, President.

J. D. SIMPSON, Sec., Pro Tem.

BOARD ON CHRISTIAN LITERATURE

The day of a reading public is upon us. The whole country is flooded with literature, good, bad and indifferent. The time for the general use of Christian Literature is upon the Church today as never before.

The publishing house of the M. E. Church, South, puts out as high class literature as can be found coming from the press, and we insist that this fact be kept constantly before our people.

The tracts and leaflets used in the Centenary Campaign of education was so productive of good that we feel that this kind of work should be continued. We feel that this is a matter of such vital importance that we wish to suggest that each Presiding Elder select a man in his District who will stress its importance to the Committee on Christian Literature in each pastoral charge, and that said Committee be urged to circulate such literature among the membership of the Church.

We regret that the Methodist Review, Christian Advocate and Epworth Era were published at a loss this year; this, however, comes by way of increased cost of material and labor. The above named periodicals including the Missionary Voice are not surpassed by periodicals of their kind anywhere. We urge that our pastors and laymen exert themselves to give these periodicals a wider circulation.

Our Sunday School literature is of excellent quality and deserves first place in all of our Sunday Schools.

The Alabama Christian Advocate has had another year of marked success. The goal of 20,000 subscribers set by the editor and this Board one year ago, having been more than realized, we desire now to set our goal at 25,000, but ask our people throughout the Conference to join hands with us in putting this paper into all our homes. The work of the editor and business manager, Dr. L. C. Branscomb, is most heartily commended by this Board. He is giving us a most excellent paper, and we recommend that the Bishop appoint him to the same work for another year.

Out of the funds assessed for Christian Literature we appropriate an amount equal to one per cent of amount paid for the support of the ministry to be applied on the support of the Advocate.

(Signed) W. P. McGLAWN, Chairman.
N. H. ABERNETHY, Secretary.

COMMITTEE ON SABBATH OBSERVANCE

Your Committee on Sabbath Observance begs leave to submit the following report:

The Sabbath is a day of rest, both for the body and soul, and is the day which God has reserved to Himself, that He may hold Communion with all whom He would bless and exalt in their characters.

We should not only abstain from all desecration of this Holy Day, but as a Church we should oppose every tendency and every practice which would render the day secular or make it one for holiday diversion.

Therefore, be it resolved, That we hereby renew and pledge our opposition to all things which tend to secularize the Christian Sabbath, and also to all avoidable business by which our people are deprived of their rest and of the right to worship God in religious services on the Sabbath Day.

G. M. DAVENPORT, Chairman.
W. M. TREADAWAY, Secretary.

COMMITTEE ON EVANGELISM—REPORT No. 1

We your Committee on Evangelism beg leave to submit the following report:

We rejoice that under the leadership of the Holy Spirit Methodism has come to the day when our faith can claim a Church-Wide Revival. The needs of the world, the quickened conscience of the Church, the awakening of hosts of our people to their duty to give themselves and their possessions to the Lord's work, challenge Methodism to attempt a task larger than we have yet undertaken. We must go forward, a United Church, to the work of winning thousands of the unsaved to Christ and the Church.

Those who have been appointed to leadership in the plan of campaign have called on us to carry the message down to every Charge, to every Church, and to every man, woman and child of the Church. The message is, that for so great a task, we use, first of all, the leadership of the Holy Spirit, and His blessings upon all our organizations and plans. We have claimed His guidance in the direction of the organized work of Methodism and His blessings have attended our labors.

We urge our preachers and laymen to study the Standard Plan for the Evangelistic Campaign, and, as in the Centenary Campaign, WORK THE PLAN. It calls for a survey of every community and the listing of the names of all the unidentified Methodists and the Non-Church members. There is to be the thorough organization of the membership of the Church for personal work in the winning of souls. This offers us an opportunity both to quicken the spiritual life of the Church and to bring the hosts of unsaved people into the Kingdom. It is the open door for Methodism, and to fail to enter is to turn from the largest opportunity God has given us. Two weeks prior to Easter Sunday, or as near thereto as may be satisfactory to the local Church, the special revival services are to begin. The Circuit Pastor is requested to begin his revival campaign as many weeks before Easter as will be needed to complete the work on Easter Sunday.

Another report deals with certain phases of the Evangelistic Campaign in the Sunday School, but we would call attention to the fact that the campaign in the Sunday School is now in progress. The special work now before us is to make an organized canvass of our communities for the enrollment of members of the Sunday School. The months of November and December are to be given to this work. And in all the work of the Sunday School the emphasis is to be on Evangelism and Life Service.

We have nominated to the Joint Committee on Evangelism, Rev. J. D. Hunter, as Evangelistic Campaign Director for the North Alabama Conference.

COMMITTEE ON EVANGELISM—REPORT NO. 2.

We recognize the home as the original institution established by Almighty God, upon which He founded his chosen Nation and His Church. Nothing is more fundamental in the life of the Church, the Nation and the World, than genuine home religion. The Presence of Jesus Christ, and the recognition of His leadership in the home make domestic happiness a reality, and create a wholesome atmosphere in which to bring up children who shall become an honor to their parents and a power for good in the world. We believe the family altar to be a necessity in maintaining the highest type of religious life in the home.

Therefore, we hail with delight the "Family Altar League," with the goal of one hundred (100,000) thousand family altars in the M. E. Church, South.

We recommend the acceptance of the quota of five (5,000) thousand for the North Alabama Conference, and that this quota be distributed among the Districts as follows:

Albertville, 375; Bessemer, 400; Birmingham, 650; Decatur, 450; Florence, 300; Gadsden, 450; Haleyville, 225; Huntsville, 350; Jasper, 350; Roanoke, 350; Sylacauga, 400; Talladega, 375; Tuscaloosa 325.

We recommend that the Presiding Elders distribute the District quotas among the several pastoral charges, and that we give ourselves earnestly to the work of enrolling as a minimum 5,000 in the North Alabama Conference as members of the "Family Altar League."

F. K. GAMBLE,
R. F. LOVELADY,
A. G. PATTERSON.

REPORT OF BOARD ON TEMPERANCE AND SOCIAL SERVICE

We rejoice that the amendment for prohibition is now a part of the Constitution of the United States, and while there is much to be done we have the government behind us. Let us thank God, brethren, that this great thing has come to pass, and that in His providence we have had some part in this great achievement and let us pledge our support to the execution of the law.

A plan for the financial re-organization of the Anti-Saloon League of America for State, National and Inter-National work has been submitted to your Committee. The document is very complete and we recommend that all who are interested in this matter write Anti-Saloon Headquarters for a copy of the same.

We recommend the appointment of Rev. E. E. Emerson as Assistant Superintendent of the Anti-Saloon League of Alabama.

Social Service

We have received a communication from Bishop Jas. Cannon, telling of the general social progress of the church. We are heartily in accord with it. In 1919 at Junaluska, N. C., the commission of Social Service had a very interesting and profitable meeting. A similar meeting will be held in 1920 at the same place. We urge our Preachers and Laymen as far as possible to attend this meeting as it is a part of our Church work that we should pay greater attention to than we have done before.

We are realizing that the Gospel of our Lord as expressed in His teachings as exemplified in His life is unto the salvation of the whole man, soul and body. This ministry He commissioned His Church to continue in His name and unto His glory. So the proper care of the health of the body as well as the cure of the soul has ever been recognized as a part of the Church's Messianic mission. Hospitals and other institutions for the care and cure of the sick have followed in the footsteps of the Church.

Methodism has always been outspoken and active in expressing its life in good along this line; not only in curing and caring for the victims of diseases, but also in their prevention. Again this Conference would express its interest in the work of sanitation and its gratification that it is now being more aggressively prosecuted by the government of the State and the Nation. We urge our people to co-operate as fully as they can with these efforts to alleviate and prevent diseases, as a fitting expression of their service to men in the name of our Master, and especially in the present campaign for the elimination of the social diseases shown to be prevalent among us, that our children may enjoy their rights to inherit healthful bodies and the American blood be preserved pure and safe for posterity. We suggest that churches and Quarterly Conferences take up this matter for the education of the people in this social service as it may present itself in their respective communities.

JAMES A. DUNCAN, President.
WM. H. MANSFIELD, Secretary.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON DISTRICT CONFERENCE RECORDS

We, your Committee on District Conference Records, have examined the Records before us and found them neatly and correctly kept.

The Gadsden District Record was not before us.

F. R. MAPES, Secretary.

BOARD OF MISSIONS—REPORT No. 1

Your Board of Missions respectfully request the Presiding Bishop to make the following appointments:

F. K. Gamble, Conference Missionary Secretary; J. O. Hanes and J. A. May, General Evangelists; R. H. Jones, Conference Missionary Evangelist—one-half of his time to be given to work within bounds of his Conference; R. M. Archibald, J. A. J. Brock, R. E. Tyler, and V. H. Hawkins, State Supervisors Rural Survey Inter-Church Work.

R. F. LOVELADY, President.
JAS. D. HUNTER, Secretary.

BOARD OF MISSIONS—REPORT No. 2

Your Conference Board of Missions has noted with keen interest the favorable action of the General Board of Missions of our Church in which it states our attitude towards the Inter-Church World Movement in the following words:

"The Methodist Episcopal Church, South, has always stood for the most hearty co-operation between all evangelical churches and we stand ready now to co-operate in every practical way with those who have in hand the movement in the interest of closer relationship between the churches of Christ in America."

Your Board of Missions heartily endorses the action of the General Board of Missions, and hopes that the relationship of the North Alabama Conference to the Inter-Church World Movement will be both sympathetic and helpful.

Through the Survey and Field Departments of the movement, we will be given an opportunity to see the entire scheme in practical operation, and we urge our people to give to the representatives of the Inter-Church World Movement, all possible co-operation in their work.

Since the Inter-Church World Movement is to be in spirit and service an inter-church movement, directed and controlled by denominational representatives, wisely selected, and having the approval of the authorities of their respective churches, your Board, in response to the request of the Field Department of the Inter-Church World Movement, nominates for membership on the State Advisory Committee, Dr. L. C. Branscomb and Mr. R. L. Ezell.

In view of the fact that the data gathered in the Rural Survey will be of such far reaching value to us in our work both in the immediate future and in coming years, we recommend that all our Pastors be requested to give such time to Survey work as may be needed in their respective Counties, provided it does not seriously interfere with their pastoral duties.

R. F. LOVELADY, President.
JAS. D. HUNTER, Secretary.

BOARD OF MISSIONS—REPORT NO. 3

As far as figures can measure the sentiment of the Church, there has been a most healthy growth in the missionary interest in the last few years. In 1917 we had the greatest financial increase in our history, aggregating from all sources $258,972.00 for all departments. The year 1918 surpassed this high record by a further increase of $193,465.00. Of this amount $97,826.00 was increase in contributions for Women's Work, which is the greatest advance in any year since the organization of the Woman's Missionary Societies. Thus, in two years the annual income has grown $452,437.00. This has shifted the balance safely from the debit to the credit side of the Ledger.

The Centenary

The success of the Centenary rises so far above mere human power and skill as to forbid pride or boasting. It calls for humble gratitude, for "God hath done great things for us." Surprising as were the financial results they were by no means the greatest. The spiritual results so evident to all are beyond all price.

Conservation

The Centenary brings a great opportunity; it also brings a great danger. It has flung wide the gates of the new missionary era for which we have been praying. The danger is that we will not prove ourselves worthy to enter and possess the land. To avoid this danger the Centenary Commission is seeking to press forward on the lines of advance already so well begun. The cultivation of stewardship, of life service, and of intercession, bear a fundamental and permanent relation to the success of the Church. Their cultivation must be earnestly continued. We would put special emphasis on the Church-wide revival to which the Spirit is so evidently calling us, and to which the whole Church shows signs of responding.

Making collections is more difficult than securing subscriptions, especially long-term subscriptions. This well known fact emphasizes the necessity of the most careful and well organized effort to secure the full collection of the Centenary pledges, in order that there may not be the loss so frequently realized in such cases.

Regular Income

Emphasis on the Centenary must not be allowed to obscure the regular sources of income. These form the base line of our finances. The very success of the Centenary makes it the more necessary that there should be a vast increase in regular income in order to take care of the enlarged missionary program. Let it be clearly understood that the Centenary pledges do not include assessments. It would be a calamity if this should be done. Besides, first, the new law of assessments makes obligatory the annual payment to the missionary assessment along with other assessments which are not involved in the Centenary; second, the regular income, including the assessments, has been from the beginning kept entirely separate from the strictly Centenary funds. We would urge, therefore, that this point be made clear and insisted upon without exception.

REPORT OF CONFERENCE CENTENARY COMMISSION

The Centenary Commission of the North Alabama Conference held its first meeting immediately after the adjournment of Annual Conference, November 18th, 1918. Wm. H. Stockham was elected Chairman; Robert Echols, Vice Chairman; and F. K. Gamble, Secretary. At the second meeting by-laws were adopted and committees appointed to direct the different phases of the Centenary campaign. Nine regular meetings have been held during the year.

An earnest effort was made to conduct the entire campaign in accordance with the "Standard Plan." Conference, District, Charge and Church organizations were set up and operated, the progressive stages of the preparatory campaign were observed, and the Eight Day Drive itself conducted according to the "Plan". So far as we have been able to learn, wherever the Standard Plan was followed, large success was achieved.

Never in the history of our Church has there been such unanimity of thought, purpose, plan, and action as was reached in the Centenary movement, and as a consequence, never has there been such glorious success. Pastors, laymen and women, Church members, young and old, threw themselves with whole-hearted zeal into this greatest undertaking of Methodism, and under the guidance and power of the Holy Spirit a goal was reached that has brought joy to all hearts and has set forward mightily the Kingdom of God in the world.

Conference Centenary Headquarters were maintained in the Title Guarantee Building, Birmingham, and throughout the Campaign these offices were the clearing house for all Centenary work and the scene of the busiest activity. From the beginning the Conference Commission realized the necessity for a campaign of the greatest intensity and aggressiveness, and we are now quite sure that a milder, more conservative program would have meant failure in North Alabama.

We shall give only a brief summary of the year's work in the different departments of the Centenary.

Publicity

Thousands of leaflets and hundreds of posters were distributed throughout the Conference; a large number of newspaper articles and advertisements appeared in daily and weekly newspapers, and thousands of copies of the Centenary Bulletins were mailed from Nashville and from Conference Headquarters. Many letters were also written to those officially connected with the Centenary campaign in the Districts and local Churches on various phases of the Centenary. These, together with the many communications and news items published in the Alabama Christian Advocate, and the strong editorials by the Editor of our Conference organ, made up a thorough-going publicity program. Five thousand copies of the Centenary Edition of the Alabama Christian Advocate were mailed to non-subscribers, and several packages of literature were sent to those not in the habit of attending church.

Minute Men and Speakers Bureau

A most effective organization in this department was set up and operated under the direction of Reverend R. M. Archibald. The three-minute speakers rendered a service of great value in their messages from week to week, there being a Minute Men Chairman for every Charge in the Conference except one. A large number of Bureau Speakers carried messages of information and encouragement to many of the remoter churches, and much work was done toward filling all vacant pulpits and holding rallies. Altogether the work done under the department of Minute Men and Speakers Bureau contributed very largely to the success of the campaign.

Intercession

A report from the Department of Spiritual Resource at Nashville shows that 7081 signed enrollment cards in the Fellowship of Intercession were received at Headquarters from the North Alabama Conference, but this by no means represents the total number of people who joined this league, and who united in prayer for the extension of God's Kingdom and the success of the Centenary Campaign. We feel sure that many thousands of our people were praying regularly and persistently, so that a great volume of prayer was constantly raised to the throne of Grace from the hearts of deeply interested Methodists.

Stewardship

One of the most aggressive phases of the Centenary campaign was that of Stewardship and Tithing. Much of the literature distributed, and many of the letters written, and sermons and addresses delivered were on this important subject. Cards for enrollment in the "Methodist Million" were distributed everywhere, and in some churches an every member canvass for Tithers was conducted. Our records show a total of three thousand two hundred and seventy-seven enrollment cards sent to Headquarters at Nashville, but this must be far short of the actual number enrolled, and we wish to urge that all pastors see that the signed Tithe Cards in their churches be forwarded at once to Doctor J. J. Stowe, at Nashville. An Honor Roll was instituted, to which every church was eligible whose entire Board of Stewards was enrolled as Tithers, this feature being peculiar to the North Alabama Conference. Our records show fifty-five churches reached this standard.

Sunday Schools

The Centenary campaign in the Sunday Schools was largely under the direction of the Conference Sunday School Field Secretary, Doctor J. S. Chadwick, who gave almost his entire time to the Centenary work until the close of the Eight Day Drive. 414 Sunday Schools made pledges to the Centenary amounting to $137,405.00. A report from Headquarters at the close of the Eight Day Drive gave the North Alabama Conference fourth place in Southern Methodism in the total amount pledged by the Sunday Schools to the Centenary, and the latest report shows our Conference in third place in the amount paid on these Sunday School pledges. The campaign for the Centenary in the Sunday School has not been finished and the influence of the Centenary will be most lasting through this agency.

Woman's Missionary Society

Under the inspiration of the Centenary movement large things have been attempted and accomplished in the Woman's Missionary Society throughout the Conference. Fifty new auxiliaries were organized, and one thousand four hundred fifty-nine new members secured between September 30th, 1918 and April 24th, 1919. The Conference pledge for 1919 was increased $2,500.00 over that of last year, being $10,000.00 for the current year. The women of the Church gave themselves to the work of the Centenary as speakers, campaign directors and team workers, and in every other way rendered most valuable assistance in making possible our large success.

Epworth League

Wherever the Centenary was presented to the young people of the Church they responded with enthusiasm and zeal. There has been splendid development among the Epworth Leagues of the Conference, both in number of new chapters organized and the growth in membership. The inspiration of the Centenary Movement doubtless made some contribution towards this development, and certainly the Centenary is receiving large fruitage from the new growth in the Epworth League. The quota for Epworth Leagues of North Alabama was $3,800.00 a year; the Conference Epworth League fixed the goal at $7,000.00 a year, and wherever the quota has been presented to the local chapters they have enthusiastically accepted their allotments. In addition to the contribution in money from among the young people we must look to them for the larger gift of life service in order that the new missionaries needed for the field may be forthcoming. We are confident that we will not be disappointed in our hopes for large number of volunteers.

Campaign Expenses

The total cost of conducting the Centenary Campaign in the North Alabama Conference from November 18th, 1918 to November 4th, 1919 amounts to $10,454.39. This is 77/100 of 1 per cent of the amount subscribed in individual pledges, and 55/100 of one per cent of the total Centenary reports for the Conference. For the results achieved, both in finances raised, and in deepening and broadening the interest in the world-wide missions among our people, we ascribe all praise to the Great Head of the Church, and devoutly pray that we may continue to give ourselves without reserve toward the bringing in of His Kingdom of righteousness and peace in all the earth.

The Conservation Program

Our attention must now be given to the work of holding the ground already gained, and press on to new victories. The Joint Centenary Commission has mapped out a thorough-going Conservation Program, which will be presented at this session of the Annual Conference. We, therefore, indorse this program and recommend heartily a united co-operation along all lines.

REPORT OF BOARD ON LAY ACTIVITIES

The time has come to construct an enduring foundation on which to build a superstructure of the Laymen Activities.

First: Realizing the necessity for more definite organization of the Laymen in each local church, we recommend that the District Lay Leaders be instructed to organize in each Charge a Board of Lay Activities with committees on missions, evangelism, social service and such other phases of the work as may be needed. This definite organization we believe will afford specific duties for the laymen of the local church, and give a more definite organization to the entire movement.

Second: We recommend the continuance and more thorough organization of Minute Men and Speakers Bureau throughout the entire Conference for the purpose of carrying messages on all vital subjects to the congregations, and to every gathering in the church. The speakers Bureau offers the largest opportunity for filling vacant pulpits, and using the laymen in delivering messages of vital importance during the coming Evangelistic Campaign.

Third: We recommend that the whole body of lay workers be thrown into the Stewardship Drive during the present month of November, and culminating December 7-14. It is of the greatest importance that we reach the goal for this year in every church, viz.: 20% of the membership enrolled in the Methodist Million Tithe Covenant. We also recommend the organization of a Tithe League in every church.

Fourth: We urge that all laymen assist and encourage in every way the prompt and full payment of Centenary pledges, and the securing of pledges from new members as they may be added.

Fifth: We realize the importance of our people generally being united in prayer if we are to accomplish the great results in the forthcoming Evangelistic Campaign. We, therefore, urge the continuance of the Campaign to enroll our people in the Fellowship of Intercession.

Sixth: We share in the earnest expectation that the great Centenary Campaign in our Church shall have its culmination in the Church-Wide Revival, and, therefore, call upon our laymen to unite in persistent prayer and zealous personal efforts towards its realization.

Seventh: We present the nomination of A. G. Patterson as Conference Lay Leader for the coming year.

REPORT OF EPWORTH LEAGUE BOARD

We, your Epworth League Board, wish to say that we rejoice in the work done by the Epworth Leagues of our Conference. They have accomplished an unusual amount of League work during the Conference year, having made substantial gains in all Departments of League activities. Since we understand that the Cabinet of the Epworth League Conference will begin a systematic course of League instruction over the Conference we ask that the Presiding Elders give a place on the District Conference program to the representative of the Cabinet.

We earnestly ask that our pastors assist the district Secretary in the preparation of the District Institute that will be held in each District during the coming Spring, and that they attend the same with as many of their young people as possible.

Realizing that the law of our Church requires that a League Chapter be organized in each Charge, we urge each pastor who may not have a League, to correspond with the District Secretary, or the Executive Secretary of the Conference for plans, etc.

We urge our pastors to attend our Conference and Institute at Athens, Ala., during the second week in June. The program last year was of an unusual type, and for next year the promise is to be even better.

We heartily approve the plan of the Conference Epworth League Cabinet in establishing Headquarters in Birmingham, and placing an Executive Secretary in charge of the League work of our Conference. We pledge our undivided support to the movement, both in our finances and our co-operation, and urge that the Conference support this important branch of Church activity for future leadership.

We wish to approve the policy of the Epworth League Cabinet and to pledge ourselves to support them in all their undertakings.

We recommend that the Bishop appoint Rev. William Graham Echols to the office of Executive Secretary for the Conference Epworth Leagues.

We wish to thank the Committee of Finance for the appropriation of $2,000.00, which they so generously gave to our Cause.

We wish to thank the Committee for arranging for the Epworth League Anniversary.

We wish to acknowledge the appreciated assistance from the Central office which we have received from time to time, and to pledge ourselves to carry out their policies as best we can.

R. E. TYLER, President.

REPORT OF SUNDAY SCHOOL BOARD

The Centenary in the Sunday School

The Sunday Schools of our Conference made a splendid showing in support of the Centenary. The active campaign did not begin until February 1st, since their Conference Field Secretary did not begin his work until that date, but in the face of that situation we make a better record than the average Conference of the Church. Ranking seventh in membership among the Conferences of Methodism, we were fourth in amount pledged by the Sunday Schools to the Centenary, and to October 1st, we were second in amount paid on pledges. Approximately four hundred schools accepted their Centenary quotas and since the close of the Drive many of these schools have increased the amount of their pledges. We would urge our Sunday Schools to take Specials to at least the amount of their pledges and, if possible, increase the amount. The last Sunday in December is to be observed as Specials' Day in the Sunday School, and on that day it is expected that every school in Methodism make a definite pledge for 1920.

The Church Wide Revival

In the movement which promises much for our Methodism, the Church-Wide Revival, the Sunday School will have a definite share. This is as it should be, for we have come to a day when approximately eighty-five percent of the number added to the Church on profession of faith come from the Sunday School. First on the Sunday School Program for the Revival is the Membership Campaign, from November 1st to January 1st. Let our Sunday School take up without delay and with real earnestness this work of reaching the people outside the Sunday School. The membership statistics of all Protestant Churches of the country bring us face to face with this fact—that comparatively few people outside the Sunday School are being won for Christ and the Church. Therefore, there is a reason more important than the increase in Sunday School enrollment in this Sunday School membership campaign. We must go out after the people who today are not being reached by the Church.

Teacher Training Work

Our Church was one of the pioneers in the movement which promises such large results for the Kingdom—the work of Teacher-Training. The Teacher-Training Department at Nashville with Dr. John W. Shackford, Superintendent, is given high rating by the Sunday School leaders of America, and our Teacher-Training course is outranked by that of no Church of our country. We must take up in earnest this work in our local schools or fail of our opportunity and our high obligation. The one problem faced by every school today, in country, town and city, is the scarcity of competent and faithful teachers. If that problem is in any measure solved we shall go forward; to fail to solve it the Church faces a day of reckoning.

In every Sunday School of our Conference let there be a Teacher-Training Class, and let us make now this resolve, that whatever the cost in toil and increasing effort we are going to pay that price. We call attention to the Training-Schools for Sunday School leaders at Lake Junaluska, N. C., and Dallas, Texas, both to give our endorsement to the work done and to urge our pastors and Sunday School officers and teachers to avail themselves of the great opportunity offered there. The North Alabama Conference should have a large representation at Lake Junaluska in July, 1920.

Wesley Bible Classes

Another of the big opportunities offered the Church through the work of the Sunday School is in the Wesley Bible Class Movement. All of the classes of the Sunday School of the Intermediate Grade and all higher grades should be Wesley Bible Classes, organized and enrolled at Nashville headquarters. We urge our pastors and superintendents to see to it that these classes now in their schools be organized and enrolled at Nashville.

Sunday School Day

We are yet far below the standard reached by some of our Conferences: that of a general observance of Sunday School Day. We should come to that standard during 1920, both because the law of the Church leaves us without excuse for failure to reach that standard and because it is the only opportunity a Methodist Sunday School has to make a direct contribution to the Sunday School work of its own Conference and Church. Let no school fail of the observance of the day during the coming year.

The Standard of Efficiency

The General Sunday School Board has placed before us certain Standards of Efficiency that have been fashioned by Sunday School leaders who know what a Methodist Sunday School ought to be and do. As a Conference we are yet far below the Third Rank Standard; no district of the Conference has yet reached that standard, and a very small percentage of our local schools have come to be one hundred percent Methodist schools. Although that Standard is not easily reached, it is the lowest that our Church has placed before us. We can find standards lower than our own, but we discredit ourselves when we are satisfied to reach a goal that calls for no great effort.

Our Leaders in the Work

We have at Nashville a leadership of recognized ability and efficiency, Dr. E. B. Chappell, Sunday School Editor, and his co-workers are supplying the Church with a literature that, in our opinion, is not surpassed in general excellence by that of any other Church. Methodist people should use it, not alone because Methodist loyalty calls for such support, but because they cannot find elsewhere anything so good. We would give our assurance of cordial support to our General Sunday School Board and to our Sunday School Editor and his helpers in the great forward movement launched by them. They have a Sunday School program that marks a new day for Methodism, and under their leadership, with the guidance of the great Head of the Church, we will go forward.

Plans for 1920

We give our endorsement and pledge our support to the Conference program for 1920 as outlined by our Conference Field Secretary. That program calls for the holding of two Standard Training Schools, perhaps at Birmingham and Anniston; the carrying of Training Schools of six days each to some fifty charges of the Conference, this work to be done largely by competent volunteer teachers; the holding of a District Sunday School Institute in each district and the holding of a number of group institutes, for several charges and for the schools of one charge; hearty co-operation in all the plans for the Church-Wide Revival.

Our Conference Workers

Our Conference Field Secretary came to the work in February of the present year. During the first five months of his term of service his work was mainly in behalf of the Centenary in the Sunday School, hence he had only five months for general work. He has visited more than sixty charges and has reached more than one hundred churches. For more than six months past we have had the service of Mrs. M. M. Hughes as Conference Elementary Superintendent, a worker of recognized ability and of large experience. We have been fortunate in claiming her service the past few months. We trust that it will be possible for us to secure her acceptance of that position for the coming year and to give full time to the work. In view of his most efficient and untiring labors and because of his peculiar adaptability to the work, we heartily recommend that Dr. J. S. Chadwick be appointed as Conference Field Secretary for the ensuing year and that the executive committee secure the services of a Conference Elementary Superintendent for full time on a reasonable salary basis.

Armenian and Syrian Relief

We urge our Sunday Schools to make contributions to the Armenian and Syrian Relief Fund according to appeal from the General Sunday School Board, the needs of these people being as urgent as heretofore.

J. B. WADSWORTH, Chairman.
H. G. STOKES, Secretary.

REPORT OF BOARD OF EDUCATION

The three colleges belonging in whole or in part to the North Alabama Conference are taxed to their full capacity. In fact each of them has been compelled to refuse students for lack of accommodations.

This, together with the necessity of meeting increased educational standards, makes it necessary that we have greater financial support, and slightly increased assessments are asked for each of them.

We are looking forward with much interest to the Educational campaign to be launched in May, 1920. We ask the Conference, by the adoption of this report, to pledge its loyal and enthusiastic support and co-operation with the General Campaign Committee. The success of this campaign will give to our schools much needed equipment and endowment.

A report from the Chancellor of the Emory University shows that it is advancing to assured success.

At the suggestion of the Department of Ministerial Supply and Training we suggest:

1. That our Lord's method of supplying our pulpits be followed—namely, prayer to the Lord of the harvest that he will send forth laborers into his harvest.

2. That every Sunday School be requested to properly observe Vocation Day.

3. That every pastor be urged, in accordance with the law of our Church, to preach at least one sermon a year in every pulpit on the claims of the Christian ministry, and that this be followed by personal work among the young men of his congregation.

4. That our preachers be requested to speak on the subject of the ministry to the pupils of the schools and colleges accessible to them.

5. That the authorities of our colleges and schools give cordial welcome and assistance to the Life Service Campaign conducted this session among students by the Centenary Commission of our Church.

Our loan fund which amounts to $9,226.00 is efficiently managed by its trustees.

We have received from the Conference Treasurer $15,800.87 which will be distributed to the schools in the proper ratio.

A part of the money assessed for Athens College can be used only for liquidation of the debt upon that school; each year this debt is being reduced. In view of this fact and because of the greatly increased value of building material, we recommend that the Conference authorize the Trustees of the college to increase the insurance to the amount which they shall deem sufficient, paying the additional premiums out of this assessment.

We recommend that Athens College and the Woman's College be each recommended to the General Board of Education for "A" Grade, and that Birmingham-Southern College be recommended for the "B" Grade.

We recommend the election of the following trustees to succeed themselves, their terms having expired:

For Athens College: J. S. Chadwick, C. F. Cross, J. C. Persinger, F. W. Brandon, T. M. Hobbs.

For Woman's College: E. M. Glenn, F. M. Jackson.

We recommend the following appointments: W. F. Melton, Prof. in Emory University; H. C. Howard, Prof. in Emory University; Jno. L. Ferguson, Prof. in Millsaps College; B. B. Glasgow, President Athens College; Cawthorn Bowen, Prof. in Woman's College; R. M. Hawkins, Prof. in Birmingham-Southern College; L. G. Alverson, Principal Flat Rock School; W. W. Rutland, Prof. in Flat Rock School; F. W. Brandon, Conference Secretary of Education; M. L. Smith, S. A. Swindell, P. C. Oliver and J. F. Dunn, Students in Emory University; R. F. Curl, Student in Southern Methodist University.

GEO. W. READ, Secretary.

REPORT OF JOINT COMMISSION ON EDUCATION

Whereas the Board of Trustees of the Southern University, the Board of Trustees of the Birmingham College and the Board of Trustees of the Birmingham-Southern College have each adopted a resolution authorizing the consolidation of said corporations under the name of the Birmingham-Southern College, with its principal place of business at Birmingham, Jefferson County, Alabama; the said resolution being as follows:

"Whereas it is desirable that the Southern University shall be consolidated with the Birmingham College and Birmingham-Southern College under the terms of the Act approved February 15, 1919, entitled 'An Act to provide for the consolidation of corporations not of a business character:

Now, Therefore, be it resolved by the Board of Trustees of said Birmingham-Southern College that the said Birmingham-Southern College be consolidated with the Southern University and the Birmingham College, upon the following terms, viz:

The name of the consolidated corporation shall be Birmingham-Southern College. Its principal place of business shall be at Birmingham, Alabama.

The consolidated corporation shall succeed to all the rights and privileges and shall have title to all the property of the several Corporations so consolidated. The Board of Trustees of the said Birmingham-Southern College as now constituted, shall be the first Board of Trustees of the consolidated corporation and shall continue in office until their successors are elected, and the members of the Board of Trustees shall be elected at the time and in the manner and shall have the qualifications prescribed by the present charter of the Birmingham-Southern College. In case of any inconsistency in or conflict between the rights, powers and privileges of any of the said corporations, the consolidated corporation, unless otherwise provided, shall have and exercise the greater or more liberal rights, powers and privileges."

Now, Therefore, be it resolved by the North Alabama Annual Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, that the said Conference does hereby assent to the consolidation of the said corporations in the manner and form authorized by the said resolution hereinabove set forth.

This 7th day of November, 1919.

JAMES ATKINS, Presiding Bishop.

This is a true and correct copy of the resolution adopted by the above named Conference at its annual session, as appears by the minutes of said Conference.

This 7th day of November, 1919.

Memoirs

BISHOP JAMES HENRY McCOY

Bishop James Henry McCoy was born in Blount County, Alabama, August 6th, 1868. His father, Dr. William Clark McCoy, was a native of Missouri. As a Confederate soldier he served as courier under Stonewall Jackson. After the Civil War he came to Alabama where he married Miss Annie Vaughn, entered the Methodist Ministry and became a great preacher and a real leader of North Alabama Methodism. Dr. McCoy died in 1891; his wife still lives, worthy in every way of having been the companion of a noble itinerant preacher and the mother of a distinguished Bishop in the Church of Christ.

Dr. McCoy in 1884 moved to Greensboro, having accepted the agency of the Southern University. It was in this institution that his son James Henry was educated. It was here that he heard God's call and surrendered his life to the ministry. No student in the Southern University was ever more popular than he was; but let it be remembered that he did not sacrifice principle nor efficiency for popularity. As a youth he stood for high ideals. As a student he won the medals and honors given by his college. He graduated in 1889, receiving the A. M. Diploma, loved and honored by the whole college community.

His first work was in Bessemer, Ala., where he came immediately after his graduation, as assistant to the writer, who was then pastor in Bessemer. This association ripened the friendship of college days into a devotion that has never been interrupted, nor will it be, for love is eternal.

J. H. McCoy was admitted on trial into the North Alabama Conference of 1889, in Huntsville, Ala. His first appointment was Oakland Circuit.

During his meeting at Oakland in 1890, the interest not being what he desired, he made a vow that he would fast and pray until some soul was happily converted to God. When God's servants get in earnest like that, something is sure to happen. It was possibly 48 hours before he broke his fast; but the revival came and souls were saved. In 1891 he was pastor of South Decatur church. In 1892-3 he served Dadeville and Alexander City. In 1894-5 he was stationed at Wesley Chapel in Birmingham. In 1896 he was with the Tuscaloosa Church where he remained three years.

December 31, 1895, he was married to Miss Annie Bradley, of Birmingham. She was a granddaughter of one of the famous old pioneer preachers of this section, Rev. J. G. Gurley. She was a woman of culture and piety, devoted to her husband, her children, her church and her God.

In December, 1898, he was made the pastor of the Huntsville congregation, where he remained four years.

In connection with his pastorate, in 1901 he was the editor of the Alabama Christian Advocate and with all due respect to those living or dead who have tried to do this work, in our opinion he made the best editor the Advocate has ever had. When serving as editor, Bishop McCoy began to preach at Five Points on the South Highlands, and in connection with Dr. J. D. Simpson, the presiding Elder of the Birmingham District, he organized the Highland Methodist Church, was appointed pastor and served it until in 1906 he accepted the presidency of Birmingham College.

He did good work everywhere, but the hardest work he ever did was as president of his Conference School. His inspiring utterances, his brotherly kindness, his high ideals and his resplendent life, set a standard for his students that was truly great, and scores upon scores of them are making their lives tell out most gloriously for good.

At the General Conference which met in Birmingham in May, 1906, he delivered an address of welcome that sparkled with wit, radiated with love, shone with beauty, and was surcharged with power. Men said "Who is this young man? Where has he been all this time? A man who can talk like that must not be monopolized by a single conference. He must belong to the whole church."

The Bishops appointed him as fraternal messenger to the Canadian Methodist church, whose general Conference met in 1906. At this Conference his address still further pleased the church, so that when the General Conference met in Asheville in 1910, on May 17 he was chosen as one of the chief superintendents of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South. No man has ever been elevated to that high position who has been more universally beloved. Absolutely free from the spirit of the autocrat, with a heart in him that loved all humanity, and with a spirit as unselfish as the sunlight, he sought to use his high office, not to promote favorites or to win praise for himself, but to bless the church and to honor Jesus Christ.

On May 26, 1915, Annie Bradley McCoy, the wife of his youth, the mother of his children, was called to her reward. He bore his great sorrow as a Christian should. "Though He slay me yet will I trust him" was the spirit that upheld him.

Some two years later the Bishop was married to Miss Mary Norman Moore. Miss Moore's work at Athens college is known to the world. As the foster mother of the Bishop's children, as the friend and helper of her husband, and in his last illness, as a veritable angel of ministry and love, her work has been even more beautiful than when she led a struggling college from failure to fame.

Bishop McCoy had not been well for several months, but it was only after a visit to the Mayo Infirmary in Rochester, Minn., that he and his friends were convinced of the seriousness of his malady. From that time on the Bishop knew he would never be well again, but for the sake of his loved ones he sought to live as long as possible.

When he presided over the Alabama Conference which met in Mobile in December, 1918, though physically weak, with the spirit of a martyr he met every engagement, did his work as well as any man had ever performed it, preached a sermon that thrilled to the very soul his hearers and never even hinted at his illness except when in his sermon, picturing the victories that are to be won through the days of reconstruction, he exclaimed: "I would that I could live ten years, that I might witness the triumphs of God's grace and behold the new civilization that is coming as a result of the mighty forces now working for righteousness." But it was not to be.

After his return from conference, his malady was complicated by an attack of influenza. The tide of life ebbed and flowed. At times it seemed that he would be able to get out again. Then disappointment would come. All the while he was growing weaker. Letters, flowers, every possible manifestation of sympathy and love that could be bestowed upon him by his friends cheered him until the end. He attended to everything that could be thought of by a man preparing for a long journey.

A friend of years, not many hours before the end, said: "It is worth the little pain that may come to know the secrets beyond." His face lit up with a smile of joy as he said, "And the glad surprises. I shall soon see him face to face." Then he repeated, "Face to Face." He had given up the struggle for life. The end was in sight. "I will not last long. Then, face to face." And upon his weary countenance there was a look of inexpressible gladness and joy. He had fought the fight, finished his course, kept the faith. Home, Heaven, were just over the hill and best of all the Savior to whom he had given his whole life. About noon on Saturday, March 22, he said to his wife, "seven o'clock." She said, "It is not near seven yet." He replied: "I know, but it will be at seven." Just a few minutes before that hour, in the presence of wife and son and daughter and Lieutenant-Governor N. L. Miller and two friends who loved him as they love their own lives, he passed out of sight. Heaven somehow seemed very real and very near and the tug of the spirit world upon the hearts of those present is made stronger since he went away.

The near relatives surviving him are his mother, who made her home with him; his brother, John McCoy, an attorney of Birmingham; his three sisters, Mrs. J. B. Wadsworth, of Gadsden; Mrs. L. D. Patterson, of China; and Mrs. G. M. Davenport, of Decatur. Of his immediate family, there are his wife, Mrs. Mary N. McCoy; his son, William Richard; his daughters, Margaret and Jean, and little James, his seven-year old son, the joy and pride of his father's heart. To these he has left a heritage of love and honor and a name more valued than any earthly riches.

In the auditorium of the Birmingham First Methodist Church a great congregation, many of whom were his brethren of the ministry, gathered Monday morning, March 24, at 10 o'clock, to do honor to his memory. The organist and choir furnished appropriate and beautiful music. Dr. J. D. Simpson conducted the services. Rev. E. A. Dannelly, presiding elder of the Montgomery district of the Alabama Conference, read the first lesson. Dr. J. D. Simpson read the New Testament Scripture. L. C. Branscomb spoke of the life work of his departed friend. Dr. Simpson then paid the bishop a beautiful tribute. Dr. Geo. R. Stuart offered a most earnest and helpful prayer. The active pall-bearers were R. S. Munger, F. M. Jackson, A. R. Morrow, N. L. Miller, F. B. Yeilding, Charles A. Jones, J. N. Merrill, L. P. Giddens. The honorary pall-bearers were Dr. Geo. R. Stuart, Dr. P. B. Wells, Rev. J. W. Norton, Rev. W. E. Morris, Rev. Geo.

E. Boyd, Rev. W. E. Faust, Rev. R. M. Archibald. The body was carried to beautiful Elmwood and L. C. Branscomb committed the remains to the earth. Under a wilderness of flowers the tired body sleeps, awaiting the resurrection morn.

REV. JOHN LEE FERGUSON

Rev. John Lee Ferguson, son of Joseph A. and Mrs. Lucy C. Ferguson, was born at Marion, Ala., Nov. 18, 1849. He died at his home in Norwood, Birmingham, August 15, 1919.

At the age of 12, under the ministry of Rev. Robt. Carey, he was converted and joined the church. At Good Hope Church, Sept. 6, 1874, he was licensed to preach, Rev. Daniel Duncan being the Presiding Elder; and was admitted on trial into the North Alabama Conference Nov. 12, 1874, at Huntsville, Bishop Doggett presiding. He was admitted into full connection in 1876, the Conference sitting at Decatur under the presidency of Bishop McTyeire; and it is assumed that then and there he was by Bishop McTyeire ordained deacon. It is assumed that, two years later, at Athens, he was ordained elder by Bishop Kavanaugh, who presided that year (1878).

Brother Ferguson's first appointment was as Junior preacher to Jesse Ellis on Arbacoochee Circuit—this for Conference year 1875. His next charge was Chandler Springs for one year; then, 1877, New Castle circuit; next, for three years, Sheffield circuit.—It should be noted that this Sheffield was not the one on the Tennessee River in Colbert County, Ala., which was not then in existence; but a Sheffield in Tuscaloosa district, and possibly in Tuscaloosa County. After this, the charges in order were Gordo circuit for two years; Socapatoy circuit, for 1884; Elyton and Helena, 1885; then Avondale, Jasper and Cordova for two (perhaps three) years, Columbiana circuit four years ending with 1892, Sunny Side circuit 1893-6, Center circuit 1897.

At the end of 1897, at Florence, Bishop Galloway appointed Brother Ferguson to the office of Conference Colporteur; and in that work, he continued till the Conference session of 1912, when he was assigned to Edgewater circuit. In 1913, he was again appointed colporteur. During the years in which he was colporteur, he was also pastor at Mt. Vernon, Lincoln, Pleasant Hill, Hanceville-Blount Springs. At the session of Conference for 1914, he was given superannuate relation and therein continued till his death.

On Feb. 10, 1885, he was married to Miss Claudia Cole, of Tuskegee, Ala.; and this excellent Christian woman graced well all the relations of a Methodist minister's wife, till her death on Aug. 14, 1912. There were seven children—little Lee Cole passing away at the age of 14 months. The other children are Bess, Mary Sue (Mrs. Herbert Ephgrave), John Lambuth (a member of our Conference), Claude Allen, Ruth (Mrs. Allison F. Bell), and Frank Candler.

It was the regret of Brother Ferguson's life that circumstances hindered his early educational advantages and limited his attainments in scholarship. With an abiding sense of such things, and desiring in some measure to atone for it in the life of his children, he sought for them the best possible for them to have.

He was a good business man, and careful of his finances. At the beginning of his ministry, he resolved not only to live within his income, but also, if possible, to save some part of his pay. This resolution he kept faithfully, even not infrequently in the face of very meager salary.

He was a good preacher, a good pastor—looking carefully after all the matters pertaining to the pastoral office. In song he was in his native element; and in prayer, unctuous and inspiring. His was an evangelistic ministry, bringing into the kingdom of God members in large numbers: a very fruitful ministry was his.

Brother Ferguson was a builder. In communities where church buildings and parsonages were needed, he was wise in leadership, prudent in planning, vigorous in execution—his accomplishments in this respect placing him well abreast of the best builders this Conference has had. He seemed to possess the happy faculty of inspiring his people to undertake things, which before they had deemed not within their ability. He built fifteen churches, six of which he organized in connection with building; remodeled and completed fourteen others. It is said that he never left a church building in debt; and with few exceptions, did not leave them unfinished.

Others, beginning with him, may have outstripped him in catching the public ear, in waking popular applause, in attaining position of eminence, as such things go in current estimate; but when counsel is taken of results—results in the way of members gathered into the fold, and of church building and physical betterments generally; our brother will deservedly stand in company of those who have done great and abiding things for the Kingdom of God.

J. S. GLASGOW.

CARROLL CLAY O'NEIL

Rev. Carroll Clay O'Neil was born at New Hope, Madison County, Ala., Sept 6, 1852, and died in the "Schuessler Superannuate Home," Roanoke, Ala., May 29, 1919.

His parents were Henry H. O'Neil and Amelia Jane O'Neil. With his parents, he removed to the state of Arkansas, where, in 1870, he was converted and joined the church, being licensed to exhort, the same year, near Pine Bluff, Ark. He returned to Alabama in 1871, and in 1872 he was licensed to preach by a quarterly Conference held near Huntsville, Rev. Milus E. Johnson being his pastor. He was received on trial into the North Alabama Conference at Birmingham, November, 1875, Bishop Marvin presiding. He was for 36 years an effective Methodist minister—32 in North Alabama Conference, 4 in North Georgia Conference. He went to North Georgia at the end of 1892, and came back to North Alabama at the end of 1896. He was ordained deacon in 1879, assumedly by Bishop Paine at Tuscaloosa; and elder by Bishop McTyeire, in 1881, at Huntsville.

The list of appointments, covering these thirty-six years, cannot fail to indicate the fiber of the man: Pikeville mission, one year; Swan Creek circuit, one year; Cypress circuit, one year; Frankfort Circuit, two years; Lexington circuit, one year; New Hope circuit, two years; Larkinsville circuit, one year; Meridianville circuit, one year; White Plains circuit, one year; Blountsville and Oak Grove circuit, three years; Hokes Bluff circuit, two years; Collinsville circuit, one year; (N. Georgia) East Paulding mission, one year; Houston circuit, one year; Bowden circuit, one year, Dallas circuit, one year; (N. Alabama) Paint Rock circuit, one year; New Hope circuit, two years; Alexandria circuit, two years; Easonville circuit, four years; Childersburg circuit, two years; Heflin circuit, two years; Piper-Coleman, one year; Cottdale-Southside, Tuscaloosa, one year. In 1912 he was given superannuate relation, went to Roanoke to spend his last days in the "Schuessler Superannuate Home." His residence at Roanoke was a benediction to our people there; and be it recorded to their everlasting credit, they were ever forward to minister to his welfare.

June 11, 1872, Brother O'Neil was united in marriage to Miss Leona W. Hewlett, who was a true and blessed help-meet to this faithful man of God throughout his ministerial career. She survives him. To this union were born nine children, some of them preceding their father to the other world. Misses Annie and Iva are with their mother as solace and comfort.

Brother O'Neil's educational advantages were limited. He came upon the stage too close to the disastrous days, immediately related to our unhappy Civil War, to inherit the opportunities which he surely would have improved. He was a diligent reader and a close student—and became a self-educated man of commendable quality. He was a ready extemporaneous speaker, distinctly evangelistic, usually holding his own protracted meetings: he was richly blessed with a very fruitful ministry. In many sections of our Conference territory, agreeable conditions obtain in numerous pastorates, because of the fine foundations laid by such heroes as C. C. O'Neil.

He was distinctly a religious man—a man of large faith, and of clear religious experience: and his life was staged accordingly. Speaking of him, his good wife testifies: "Mr. O'Neil and I lived together forty-seven years; and I can say truthfully, I never knew him to do anything unworthy of his calling. Read Romans 12:9-21, and you will know the life he lived better than I can tell you. Verses 11 and 12 set forth his life so plainly, we had them put on his tomb: "Not slothful in business; fervent in spirit; serving the Lord; rejoicing in hope; patient in tribulation; continuing instant in prayer."

Such basis served well to bear up this good man through the days of his last pilgrimage, when disease and increasing physical infirmities laid heavy tax upon him—at last ending in the loss of sight during his last two years. But in all his sufferings, he never murmured, nor did he ever doubt the goodness of God, nor repine in the face of Divine providence. Of such stuff heroes and martyrs have been made. His memory lingers as a sweet perfume, his life of Christian devotion a continuing inspiration to all who knew him well and loved him.

CORNELIUS BREWER RIDDICK

Rev. Cornelius Brewer Riddick, D. D., was born in Gates County, North Carolina, April 30, 1836, and died in San Diego, California, January 5, 1919. His parents were Henry Riddick and Mary Brewer Riddick. It is assumed that he was reared at Suffolk, Virginia,—and there, in early boyhood became a member of the Methodist Church. He was educated at Randolph-Macon College.

Dr. Riddick's first connection with the itinerancy was in the Virginia Conference, where in proper order he was invested with the full rights and responsibilities of the ministry. We have been unable to obtain full facts as to his continuance with the Virginia Conference. Through a long and effective ministry, he saw pastoral service in Virginia, North Carolina, Colorado, California, Kentucky and Alabama.

In the fall of 1887, he came to the North Alabama Conference, and was by Bishop Keener appointed to the pastorate of First Church, Birmingham, there continuing to the end of the year 1891, at which time he was transferred elsewhere. Dr. Riddick's pastorate of this church was eminently successful. He was most cordially received. Under his wise and able direction, the church flourished. Great congregations waited upon his ministry, and the membership increased steadily. His ideal was a great central church, with influence radiating in every direction, with mighty impress upon the entire community.

It was during this pastorate that the present splendid edifice of the First Methodist Church of Birmingham was conceived and constructed. This building may be regarded as an embodiment of the genius and spirit of Dr. Riddick. He left the North Alabama Conference, at the end of 1891, without having occupied the pulpit of his great church. However, he came back to North Alabama at the end of 1903, and was by Bishop Smith assigned this same First Church. Here he continued as pastor through 1904 and for a part of 1905. In mid-year, 1905, on account of the increasing years and growing infirmities, he relinquished the charge and returned to his home in California. At the Conference session at Athens in 1905, he was given the superannuate relation and in that relation continued until his death.

Dr. Riddick rendered considerable service in the educational field, chiefly, if not entirely, in schools for young ladies. It is said that he assisted many worthy poor girls to successful college courses.

Dr. Riddick was happily married to Miss Elizabeth Corprew, of Norfolk, Va.—an elect lady who filled exceptionally well her office as wife of a Methodist preacher. She preceded her husband by some years to the great beyond.

The ministry of Dr. Riddick covered a very considerable space of time in widely separated sections of our country. As a pastor he was popular. In the pulpit, he was attractive, and held his congregations. His style was crisp, sententious, direct, usually occupying not much more than half an hour.

He has finished his course, and his works do follow him.

J. T. SELF.

JOHN C. SAVAGE

Rev. John C. Savage was born June 16, 1873, near Coal City, St. Clair County, Alabama. His early childhood and youth were spent at the place of birth. He was married to Minnie N. Crump, August 14, 1901. To this union were born five children, four of whom still survive.

At the age of fourteen, John was converted and joined the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, at Old Harkey's Chapel and continued a member there till he joined the North Alabama Conference in the fall of 1909.

He was above the average church member during all these years and served wherever he was elected, as a teacher in Sunday School, and as Steward or on any Committee to which he might be appointed: and yet in spite of all these faithful acts of service, he afterwards said that there was a restless feeling in his life.

He felt the call to preach early in life, but warded it off till the summer of 1909 when Rev. John A. May, one of John's former teachers, conducted a series of meetings at the home church in which Brother Savage, along with others, surrendered to the call of his master which had long been ringing in his heart.

Early in November of the same year four young men set out to Gadsden to appear before a special committee for license to preach, all were successful in the undertaking, but Brother Savage was the only one of them to join the Conference that year.

At that session of the Conference he was appointed to Hoke's Bluff circuit, where he made his first record as a circuit rider. His work was a success from the beginning as is shown by the fact that he remained on this charge for three years and might have gone back the fourth as far as he or the people on the charge were concerned. It was on this charge that John proved his ability for the work whereunto God had called him both as a preacher of the Gospel and as a financier of church affairs. From this charge he moved to Whiton circuit on the top of Sand Mountain; here he served only one year and passed on to Mount Pinson Circuit and spent two pleasant years on this charge and thence to South Hill Circuit for another two and on to Phil Campbell for the next year and thence to Merrimack Mills, Huntsville, and on the 23rd day of May of his first year there after having gone over the top in the Centenary drive, he answered a sudden call to come home to heaven.

Only a few short years in the ministry, but years of consecration; only a few charges served, but I am sure while John walks the streets of heaven that scores of those whom he helped to become acquainted with Jesus will greet him with a hand clasp of joy and gladness, and together they will swell the chorus in that celestial city. He always reported a large number of additions on profession of faith at the Annual Conferences. Though a member of the Conference for only a few years he was known and loved by many of the brethren. He rejoiced in the work and was many times tempted to quit the ministry on account of financial offers in other lines of work, but he said "woe is me if I preach not the gospel." His only regret was that he did not get into the work earlier in life.

God wonderfully blessed Brother John C. Savage in the few years which he labored in the ministry, and his efforts were not in vain in the Lord. May his friends and loved ones imitate the good that was in him and profit by his omissions and mistakes.

He leaves a devoted wife, two sons and two daughters to travel the ways of the world until God shall say "it is enough, come up higher."

May God's richest blessing be abundantly showered upon them and may they strive to enter in at the strait gate.

While we are sad and there is a great vacancy in our lives, for John was truly our brother, yet the angels are rejoicing and singing for joy because another brother has come.

L. G. ALVERSON.

LEANDER F. WHITTEN, D. D.

Rev. Leander F. Whitten, D. D., was born in Lauderdale county, Alabama, near Cypress Camp Ground, November 27, 1848. He was baptised in infancy by Rev. Wiley B. Edwards. He died in Birmingham December 1, 1918, a few days after passing his seventieth birthday and his fiftieth appointment as an itinerant preacher.

He was licensed to preach in September, 1869, on Oakland circuit, near Florence, Ala.—Rev. John B. Stevenson, presiding elder, and W. H. Jordan, preacher in charge. He was admitted on trial into the Tennessee Conference at Murfreesboro, Tenn., in September, 1869, and appointed to the Frankfort mission, now in the bounds of the North Alabama Conference. At the organization of the North Alabama Conference (1870) he became one of the charter members. His appointment was junior preacher to the Cypress circuit, Rev. John S. Marks, preacher in charge. He was ordained Deacon at Florence, Ala., 1871, by Bishop Pierce, and in 1872 ordained Elder by Bishop Doggett at Tuscaloosa, Ala., having stood an approved examination on two years' course of study in one year. This was permissible under the law of the church at that time.

In 1872 he served the Moulton circuit; 1873, the Russell Valley circuit; in 1874, the Moulton and Hillsboro; in 1875-6-7, the Decatur Station; in 1878, the Madison circuit; in 1879 to 1882, the Talladega circuit; in 1883, 1884 and 1885, Scottsboro; in the fall of 1885 he was appointed to St. John, Birmingham. He served this charge for three years. More than 600 members were received into the church during his pastorate at St. John. His next charge was LaFayette station; here he remained three years. In 1892 he served Jasper station; in 1893-4 he served Blountsville-Hanceville charge; in 1895, Millport circuit; 1896-8, Blocton; 1899, Oakbowery circuit; 1900 and 1901, Brookwood station; 1902-3-4-5, Russellville station; in 1905-7, Ensley Station; 1907 to 1910, Twenty-first Avenue; 1911-12, Dadeville station, 1913 to 1917 he served the Trinity Charge, Birmingham District. In 1918 he served again St. John, and was returned to the same charge for 1919, when he fell a victim to pneumonia. After a heroic fight for life he had to succumb to the fell destroyer and yield up a long and eventful life.

In 1878, on January 15, he was happily married to Miss Mary E. Carter, of Milan, Tenn. To this union were born three daughters, all of whom survive him—Mrs. M. S. Hitchcock, wife of Dr. Hitchcock, deceased; Mrs. Lena W. Lyrch, and Miss Willard. All live in Birmingham and are useful members of the church their father faithfully served so long.

In the death of Dr. Whitten Methodism has lost one of its truest and noblest advocates, the State a true and loyal citizen, his family a devoted father and husband.

I know no tribute more fitting than that offered by his friend and brother-beloved Dr. J. C. Morris, in the issue of the Alabama Christian Advocate of January 2, 1919. Dr. Morris so truthfully says:

"Brother Whitten was an unusual man, so different from the body of those we meet. He was thoroughly a gentleman. He had that simple, unaffected, unconscious refinement which always proves itself. He treated his fellow men with respect, a consideration which was based upon his appreciation of man. He believed that whoever he might be, man was created in the likeness of God, and that Christ loved him and died for him. This estimate made him interested in men as he met them, and he showed that interest in and respect for them. I specially and highly admired two elements in his gentlemanly character: his speech was pure, and he took up no reproach against his fellowman. He was as chaste in the presence of men as he was in the presence of women. And he was as free from scandal as he was from unclean speech.

"Brother Whitten was noteworthy as a citizen. He recognized his obligation to conserve the moral interests of his fellow citizens. He stood with the great Roman who said, 'I count nothing that is human foreign to me.' His field was larger than any conference appointment. He was the servant of all—in the home, on the street, in the hospital, or in jail.

"He was with the forlorn hope in every effort to promote civic righteousness and the morals of the people. For years he was one of the Spartan 300 who opposed the whiskey traffic in all its forms. In the delirium just before his death he was pleading for prohibition. God gave him to see the battle won.

"In this connection it is my pleasure to note the high esteem in which he was held by the public press. There was no tribute paid to this noble man that was of higher praise than those of our city papers during his sickness and at his death.

"As a Christian minister he belonged to the salt of the earth. God spoke of Abraham as my friend. Brother Whitten belonged to that company. He loved God and he was always on His side. His fine character came to its full flower in his ministry. He was a Methodist Preacher, but he was too big a man and too good a Christian to be a bigot. At the time of his death he was president of the General Ministers' Association of Birmingham.

"He was an excellent and forcible preacher of the Jeremiah type. 'There is in my heart, as it were, a burning fire shut up in my bones, and I cannot contain.' His yearly report told of many conversions. As a pastor he had no superior. His work was apostolic: he learned from St. Paul, teaching from house to house and admonishing the people night and day with tears. In this time when the spirit of the age has sadly depreciated the pastoral work to which Methodism owes so much it is refreshing to find a preacher who goes about as a good shepherd from house to house with ministry of tears.

"I close this tribute with a word which I hope no one will misunderstand. I am sure that no one among us, bishop, pastor or layman, will abate jot or tittle of what I have written about our brother beloved; yet I venture to ask, might not the church have made larger use of his gifts and graces? If I had suggested this to him it would have offended his Christian modesty, but we may ask it among ourselves.

"Just before Brother Whitten's sickness the Governor of the State, who knew him well, of his own motion offered him a position in public service which he would have filled with abundant usefulness and credit to the State.

"I have lost one of my best friends, and I am lonely."

His body rests in Oak Hill Cemetery, his spirit with God, who gave it. We mourn his loss. Emulate his virtues and follow him to the eternal home.

S. L. DOBBS.

THOMAS BRADFORD

Thomas Bradford was born in Cherokee County, Ala., near Ebenezer Church, July 18, 1851, and died at his home in Centre, January 4, 1919.

He attended the common schools of the county until about eighteen years of age, when he entered the Southern University at Greensboro, Ala., where he remained until the close of the session in 1871. He then went to Lebanon, Tenn. and studied law for a year. In 1872 he was admitted to the bar at Centre.

On May 19, 1874, he was married to Miss Louisa Wills, daughter of Dr. J. C. Wills, of Missouri, one time Professor of Mathematics in the Southern University.

Judge Bradford, as he was generally known, was a man of many fine qualities. The high ideals which he had, were most forcefully expressed in the manner of life that he lived. He was a good citizen, and always gave his support to every measure that would help the general interest of his country.

I have never known a man whose home life was more commendable. Everything was done in an orderly manner. Provision was made not only for the physical needs of his family, but for their intellectual and spiritual welfare. He had good literature, a library of the best books, and first class magazines and his Church papers. The altar fires never went out.

He served the people of his state and county in many ways—in public office and as a delegate to representative meetings.

In the fraternities of which he was a member he was both popular and useful.

The place he loved best was the Church, and that service which gave him his greatest joy was in the Church. He joined the Church in 1880, and he joined to serve. The thirty-nine years of his membership were active ones. During most of them he served as Steward and Trustee and many years as Sunday School Superintendent. Five years after joining the Church he was elected delegate to the Annual Conference, to which he was connected as delegate or member of Board of Finance for thirty-four years. On this Board he served as Treasurer, and was a most valuable member. He was twice a member of the General Conference. He was not a man of great means, but was a liberal supporter of the Church. He served his Master well and now reaps the reward of the faithful.

CHAS. W. SEALE.

THE CONSTITUTION OF THE NORTH ALABAMA CONFERENCE BROTHERHOOD

J. C. PERSINGER, President

G. W. READ, V-President.

S. T. SLATON, Secretary-Treasurer

ARTICLE 1

The name of this organization shall be the Brotherhood of the North Alabama Conference.

ARTICLE 2

The object of the Brotherhood shall be to aid the heirs of deceased members.

ARTICLE 3

Section 1. The officers of the Brotherhood shall consist of a President, Vice-President, Secretary-Treasurer, Auditing Committee, and a Committee on Revisions, who shall be elected by ballot every four years.

The President, Vice-President, Secretary-Treasurer shall constitute a Board of Directors of the Brotherhood.

Sec. 2. The president shall preside at all meetings of the Brotherhood, and perform all other duties required of such office.

Sec. 3. The vice-president shall perform all the duties of the president in the absence of the president.

Sec. 4. The Secretary-Treasurer shall keep a record of all the proceedings of the Brotherhood, give notice of the death of members, receive and receipt for all dues and assessments, and disburse them as received as hereinafter provided; he shall remit to the beneficiaries the amount received for them within thirty days after receipt of same, and render a full exhibit of the business of his office at each annual meeting.

In case of the removal or death of the Secretary-Treasurer, the President shall perform the duties of this office till the next annual meeting, when a successor shall be elected.

Sec. 5. The Auditing Committee shall audit annually the books and accounts of the Brotherhood.

Sec. 6. All proposed amendments to the Constitution of the Brotherhood shall be referred to the Committee on Revisions, said Committee to report same to the next meeting of the Brotherhood.

ARTICLE 4

The officers shall not receive any compensation for their services, but the actual expenses of the Brotherhood together with the annual dues and assessments of the Secretary-Treasurer shall be paid out of the Reserve Fund.

ARTICLE 5

Section 1. Every effective member of the North Alabama Conference, under fifty years of age, shall be eligible to membership, and effective members of other Conferences of the M. E. Church, South, under forty-five years of age, may be received on the same condition.

Sec. 2. Any person or persons, other than itinerant ministers, may become non-participating members of this Brotherhood, without initiation fees or annual dues, but such member shall pay one dollar on each claim.

Sec. 3. Participating members shall not be received except by a majority vote of the annual meetings.

ARTICLE 6

Section 1. The annual dues of each participating member shall be one dollar. This shall be held as a reserve Fund to be used, by order of the Brotherhood, to meet any emergency that may arise, as provided in Section 3 of this Article.

Sec. 2. The mortuary assessment shall be five dollars for each participating member, payable to the Secretary-Treasurer or before the annual meeting, after the death of a member.

Sec. 3. The assessment for any one year shall in no case exceed fourteen dollars. When the claims for any one year may exceed the limit of assessment, the Reserve fund shall be drawn upon, even to the exhaustion thereof to meet a deficit. Should there still be a shortage, it shall be carried forward to the next year, and an assessment made to cover it; and so on from time to time until each claimant receives the amount due on his claim as provided for in Section 2 of Article 6.

Sec. 4. Should any member of the Brotherhood fail to pay the assessments due, before the adjournment of the Annual Conference, his membership is forfeited, and he cannot be restored to membership until he pays up the full amount of the assessments, due at the time he forfeited his membership. If such assessments are paid before the succeeding annual meeting of the Brotherhood, the Secretary-Treasurer shall be instructed to place him again upon the roll as a full member. Otherwise he must be elected to membership by a vote of the organization.

ARTICLE 7

The meetings of the Brotherhood shall be held annually during the sessions of the Annual Conference.

ARTICLE 8

This Constitution shall take the place of any former one, and of all amendments thereto, contrary to this; and it shall not be changed except by a two-thirds majority of the members present and voting.
